

In order to provide our community with opportunities to stay busy and keep up with schoolwork and activities throughout hybrid and distance learning, Beth El is offering exciting programming for families. Virtual options are available based on the age of the children. Trimesters will be September-December, January-March, April-June.

All the options are completely virtual. Classes start the week of September 21st.

For Toddlers:

This is a chance for toddlers to learn from home while still receiving the valuable preschool and Jewish education that Aleph Preschool is known for. We are offering three Virtual Zoom classes weekly (30 minutes a session): Mondays will be Havdalah, Wednesdays will be Fitness Movement to Music with Stretch and Grow, and Fridays will be Shabbat. Children will participate in morning tefilot (prayers), brachot (blessings), and learn fun facts related to these rituals. Additionally, children will learn about the holidays and Torah portions through stories and songs.

For Preschool and Pre-K: Math/Science, Language/Literature, Hebrew

This option provides children an opportunity for virtual interaction without the full day commitment of in-class instruction. There will be two full-group virtual Judaic experiences a week: Havdalah and Shabbat where children will participate in morning tefilot (prayers), brachot (blessings), and learn fun facts related to these rituals. Additionally, children will learn about the holidays and Torah portions through stories and songs. In addition to the virtual experiences, we will provide three virtual 30-minute enrichment classes every week plus 10 minutes of check in and looking ahead. These classes will be focused on Math/Science, Language/Literature, and Hebrew language.

For an hour a session, support could include, but is not limited to, organization of tasks, help finishing assignments, keeping students on track, explaining difficult topics, and providing enrichment opportunities to learn more. Families can schedule 1 hour a week or 3 hours a week.
